

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1887.

TERMS OF THE NEWS AND HERALD.—The weekly edition, three dollars per annum, in advance. The daily edition, one dollar and fifty cents per annum, in advance.

RATES FOR ADVERTISING.—One dollar per inch (solid matter) for the first insertion, and fifty cents per inch for each subsequent insertion. These rates apply to advertisements of every character, and are strictly in advance. Obituaries and notices of respect are charged for as advertisements. Marriage notices, and simple announcements of fact are published free, and are not subject to the above rates for contract advertisements.

LOCAL EVENTS.

The small grain crops around town are flourishing.

It would seem that we have very few visitors in town just now.

Look out for mad dogs. It is a good time to kill off the old curs.

The fellow that took our umbrella can return it now. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

The annual picnic at the falls will come off on the first Saturday in May. It will be well attended as usual.

Fresh meat is now plentiful in town. Some of the finest mutton we have ever seen was sold on our streets on Wednesday.

A party of twenty-five or more will go from this place to the interstate drill at Washington, to come off about the 20th May.

Business is flourishing at the Rockton Quarries. The proprietors are unable to fill the orders, owing to the limited force of workmen.

Accesses E. M. Garrison and W. B. Powell, as partners, were the highest bidders for the market for the next year, and will therefore have charge of it for the year.

Before the season expires let us say, that if any one desires to fish on shares—one-half for the other—he can get employment immediately by applying at this office.

The season for our merchants to close at six o'clock is just about on them, and of course as customary, the clerks will be given the cool of the evening for a little recreation.

A good many farmers report that they are through planting cotton. Notwithstanding the lateness of the spring, a number of planters are ahead of last year in their work.

The Chester Reporter of last week remarks that a certain young attorney of our town finds considerable attraction in that city, and that the B. P. U. should keep a watch on his actions.

Another lot of fresh Millinery by express, consisting of ladies', misses' and children's hats, latest styles, with a lot of new trimming for same at the Millinery Bazaar.

J. O. BOAG.

A large number of carts containing men, women and children passed through this place on Tuesday. They were en route for Lancaster where they will work on the C. C. & C. Railroad.

It is said that the girls of town are quite shocked at the way "the boys" are shaving off their monstaches. You know what they say about kisses without monstache, "boys." "It is your business."

The anniversary picnic of the Gordons will come off on the 19th inst., and all are looking forward to the occasion with much pleasure. The festivities of this celebration are always enjoyed by every one.

The board of County Commissioners was in session on Monday. There was a colored applicant between eighty and ninety years of age who wished a little aid from the county. His case will be investigated.

A squad of men with about a dozen wagons passed through our town on Monday on their way to York county, to work on the C. C. & C. Railroad. Another squad passed through our town recently for the same purpose.

Reports from various sections of the county indicate that the farmers are well up with their work. It is said that as a general thing the land has been better and more thoroughly prepared than at any previous year since the war.

Whenever there is an appeal from the trial justice court, it is very important for the trial justice to make a full report of the case to the Circuit Court, and send up along with the papers an itemized statement of the costs accrued in his court.

Some of our merchants claim that they are now selling goods so cheap, that the purchasers after reaching home are invariably troubled with a kind of remorse, akin to the feeling that haunts a man who has stolen something. That beats "dirt cheap" all to pieces.

Quite a number of umbrella menders have visited our town during the last few weeks. The profession is evidently becoming very much crowded, and unfortunately in this case, there is not even that little consolation of knowing that "there is plenty of room at the top."

The attention of the Southern people towards manufacturing enterprises is more marked than ever before. Cotton factories, canning factories, and factories of other description are spoken of in various sections of the State. Let the ball be set in motion and keep rolling.

A movement is on foot in the congregation of Solon Presbyterian Church to organize a Young Men's Missionary Society. With a view to the accomplishment of this end, the Rev. D. E. Jordan, D. D., pastor of this church, preached a very interesting sermon on the subject of foreign missions on last Sabbath.

We received on Friday a card from Mr. E. H. Williamson, of Camak, Ga., inquiring about the Winnsboro, Wadesboro & Camak, Ga., Railroad. He wrote specially for a number of papers containing items about the proposed road, which request we cheerfully complied with. It will thus be seen that others are thinking of the anticipated road.

If You Want a Good Article Of PLUG TOBACCO, ask your dealer for JAMESON'S "Old Rip."

A LARGE EGG.—Mr. W. B. Gilbert brought to our office a few days ago one of the largest eggs we have ever seen. It measured six inches in circumference, three and a half inches in length and weighed three and a half ounces. Who can beat it?

THE PROPOSED ROAD.—All persons whether in favor of or opposed to the building of the W. W. & C. Railroad, should read what the Wadesboro, N. C., Intelligencer says in another column. The people of that section seem alive to the enterprise, if this article is the sentiment of the people.

SPECIAL THANKS.—The members of the Gordon Light Infantry feel that they are specially under obligations to Lieut. Andrew A. Kroeg, of the Palmetto Guards, of Charleston, for his untiring efforts to make their stay pleasant in the city. He will accept their sincerest thanks and their best wishes.

TRIAL JUSTICE BLANKS.—We now have on hand a complete supply of trial justice blanks, and would be pleased to fill orders from all the justices of Fairfield and surrounding country. Our prices will compare favorably with those of any job-printing house in the State. Send in your orders.

DEATH.—Mrs. Mary Simpson, of Ridgeway, died on last Tuesday night the 26th inst. She was buried on Thursday at Airmfield Presbyterian Church, of which she was throughout her long life a consistent member. She had reached the mature age of seventy years, and leaves eight children and a host of friends, who will mourn her loss.

FOREST FIRES.—Our exchanges report an unusually large number of forest fires lately. They are doubtless brought about by clearing up-lands. We are not advised to what extent the planters of this county have suffered in this particular. But it seems to us that everything ought to be done that could be done to prevent these conflagrations, so destructive to the interests of our farmers.

A HIGH COMPLIMENT.—The Columbia Register in speaking of the arrival and stay of the Gordon Light Infantry in Columbia on their return from Charleston, says:

Accompanied by Captain Newnam, the visiting company marched up from the depot, making a fine appearance, and as all who witnessed their excellent marching and soldiery bearing in Charleston will testify, the Gordon Light Infantry always do make a fine appearance.

HOT SUPPER.—The Ladies' Aid and Benevolent Society, of Salem Church, will give a hot supper on Friday evening the 6th inst., at the residence of Mr. G. Butler Pettigrew. Admission, gentlemen 10 cents, ladies free; supper 25 cents. The amount raised will be devoted to benevolent purposes. It is sufficient to say that it will be in charge of the good ladies of Salem Church, and that a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.—Mr. F. Elder will accept our thanks for an elegant basket of fresh strawberries, which were delivered on Friday last. He had a limited supply on the market on Saturday afternoon, and after to-day expects to have enough of them to supply the town as long as they are in season. They are grown in his patch in the northern outskirts of the town, and are as fine as any one could wish.

PUBLIC MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the merchants and business men at the Court House at 8.30 o'clock this (Wednesday) night, for the purpose of taking some steps to lay the claims of the town and county before the inter-State commerce commission. All persons who are interested in the freight problem, and in forcing the railroads to be just to all sections and all classes of people, are cordially invited to attend.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters remaining in the Postoffice at Winnsboro, S. C., May 2, 1887:

Thomas Black, Edward Brown, E. B. Cater, David Davis, Wiley F. Johnson, Robert Kinlaw, F. M. Lumpkin, Ellen Martin, Tener Robson, Samuel Stewart, Jessie Walker.

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say they were advertised. DuBOISE EGGLESTON, Postmaster.

NEW BUILDINGS.—Mr. U. G. Desportes is making arrangements to build a fine residence on the land purchased by him from the estate of Mr. D. R. Flenniken, viz: the Simpson tract, in the northern end of town.

Mr. C. A. Douglass will build shortly on the lot he purchased from Mr. G. H. McMaster, just north of the residence of Mr. McMaster, and Mr. J. M. Beaty will build on his own lot east of the residence of Mrs. Sarah Beaty. We know that all of these gentlemen will put up buildings of which our town may be proud.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. C. McMaster, of Augusta, has been on a short visit to friends and relatives in town this week.

Mr. W. A. Sanders, of the Chester bar, was in town on Monday on professional business.

The Rev. Mr. Hallam, of Richmond, Indiana, formerly pastor of the Episcopal Church at this place, is on a short visit to his old friends and acquaintances.

Mr. R. H. Miller and wife, of Shelby, N. C., have been spending some time with friends and relatives in town.

A GIFT FOR ALL.

In order to give all a chance to test it and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Colds, and Croup, will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal, but gives unbounded faith in the merits of this great remedy. All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of Throat, Chest or Lungs, are especially requested to call at McMaster, Brice & Ketchin, Drug Store, and get a Trial Bottle Free, Large Bottles $1.

SOMETHING NICE.—Monday was one of the warmest days we have had, and naturally the mind turned to something cool and refreshing in the way of drinks. Mr. G. A. White who has a tact for doing the nice thing at the right time, anticipated our desires and sent us over a good supply of "Milk shakes." They were elegant and we guarantee if you desire a cooling, pleasant drink, that your desires will be gratified by trying one of his shakes. He keeps first-class soda also.

MAD DOG.—A mad dog made his appearance a few days ago at Mr. W. T. McCrory's store in the Rocky Mount section of the county. He paid the school-house, which is near the store a visit, and the exercises of the day was immediately suspended. He bit two of Mr. McCrory's dogs and left. Mr. McCrory armed himself with a double-barreled shotgun and pursued at a safe distance behind. The dog stopped at Mr. Charley Ford's place, was overtaken by Mr. McCrory, and, after some difficulty, was dispatched by Mr. Ford. The dog made a desperate fight. Mr. Ford narrowly escaped being bitten.

DEATHS.—We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Martha Nichols, relict of Mr. Osmund Nichols, who preceded her to the grave about three years ago. She died at her home in the northeastern section of the county on Thursday last. She had been in failing health for some time, but it was not until about two weeks ago that it was learned that her end was approaching. She was in the seventy-fifth year of her age, and leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death.

ON THE SAME DAY an infant of Mr. and Mrs. Wooten died at the residence of Mr. W. B. Gilbert. The mother was on a visit to the family of Mr. Gilbert. The remains were sent to Blytheville on the afternoon train of the same day for interment. The family have the sympathy of a number of friends in their loss.

A SUDDEN DEATH.—On the 29th of April, Mrs. Nancy Carter, wife of Mr. Thos. Carter, who lives near Bell's Bridge, in this county, died very suddenly. She had been having chills and Friday was her regular day for a chill, but she missed it and was apparently better. She ate her dinner as usual and no one was apprehensive about her condition, but before her husband had been gone to the field an hour she dropped down suddenly amidst her little children. Mr. J. B. Fraser who was passing at the time, was attracted by the consternation of the children and immediately went to the house. By the help of a colored man she was laid on her bed, and in a few minutes was dead. Her husband was at once summoned. I found the wife he left so short a time before there lying a corpse. She leaves five children, the youngest only about two months old. Mr. Carter has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in his sad bereavement.

WEDDING BELLS.—For some time it has been an open secret that one of the "Boro's" most popular young men would take as a life partner one of our town's fairest daughters. On Thursday the Rev. Samuel Johnston and Miss Sallie Gladden were united in marriage. The happy occasion took place in the Methodist Church at eleven o'clock, the Rev. G. P. Watson officiating. A large crowd was in attendance to witness the marriage. After the ceremony binding their young hearts as one, the party repaired to the home of the bride's father, where a tempting collation was served. In the afternoon the happy couple, accompanied by Messrs. Jesse, James, Claud and William Gladden, J. M. Beaty, S. B. and D. A. Crawford, John Johnston, J. M. Elliott, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnston, and Misses Nannie and Mary Gladden and Miss Rachel McMaster, left town for the home of the father of the groom, where an elegant repast was served in the evening. Many handsome and useful presents were presented to the contracting parties by their large number of friends. Soon after the ceremony a telegram of congratulations was received from the Gordon Light Infantry, who were on their way home from Charleston, and of which the groom is one of the most popular members. We join with a host of other of their friends in wishing the newly wedded pair all the happiness possible.

Newspapers in 1887.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, will issue on Monday, May 2nd, the nineteenth annual edition of their standard publication, the "American Newspaper Directory."

The new volume contains an exhaustive list of all class publications so admirably arranged that any of the three thousand papers represented there can be readily referred to and all important facts concerning it, together with its circulation rating, easily obtained.

The Newspaper Directory will be used principally by publishers, advertisers and advertising agents, but the vast fund of information it contains makes it valuable to persons of almost every trade and profession. As a gazetteer alone it is well worth the price charged, $5.00, for it fully describes every town in which a newspaper is issued, and few people care to know about any place where one is not.

The number of papers published in the United States, Territories (including Alaska) and Canada is put at 15,420; and increase of 581 in one year.

The growth of newspapers in some of the Western States would be a matter of wonder, if it were not that this year is no exception to the rule. In Kansas the increase is 89 and in Nebraska 64; while the Keystone State shows a smaller advance of 35 and the Buckeye State of 30. Pennsylvania exhibits the largest increase in dailies, 17; Kansas in weeklies, 82, and New York in monthlies, 42.

Seven States show a decrease; the most prominent instances being New Hampshire and Virginia, six each. The whole volume shows that great care has been taken to sustain its reputation as the most comprehensive work of the kind yet published, and to insure accuracy in every detail. Anything less than a complete compendium of American newspapers and periodicals would surprise those who are familiar with the former efforts of this firm, who are so well known as the oldest, largest and best known of all the American advertising agencies.

THE GORDONS IN CHARLESTON.

Where They Stopped and How They Spent the Time.

For some time prior to the occasion the members of the Gordon Light Infantry had been anticipating their trip to Charleston, and when on Monday last they made their appearance on our streets, dressed in their handsome uniforms and with their knapsack strapped to them, a determination to have a jolly time could be seen on the face of every member. A handsome car for their use was attached to the regular train on that day, which was soon occupied and the party speeding their way to the City by the Sea. Arriving at Columbia, it was found that the special train carrying the two Columbia companies had just left, so the car of the Gordons and that of the Catawba Rifles, of Rock Hill, were attached to another special train of the South Carolina Railway. The time between the two cities was spent in chatting and the forming of new acquaintances, with an occasional song to liven up those who had a tendency to napping. Arriving in Charleston at ten o'clock the company was met by a staff officer who conducted them to the Silcox building, which was the headquarters for most of the visiting companies. After relieving themselves of their baggage most of the members scattered to take a stroll through the streets and view the sights of the city by gas light. In the morning the visiting companies were formed under command of Col. J. Q. Marshall, of the Palmetto Regiment, and marched to the Battery where the procession was formed. Promptly at 12 o'clock the procession had been formed with the Gordons in the front, the position of honor, by virtue of being Company A, and the line of march taken up for Marion Square where the unveiling ceremonies would take place. The Military was under command of Gen. Richbourg, of Columbia. Upon the arrival of the procession at the monument, the military was dismissed. The Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar delivered the oration of the day, which was a masterly effort. The remainder of the day was spent in looking around the city. On Wednesday most of the members visited Sullivan's Island, Fort Sumter and other places of interest in and around the city. Thursday morning the company bid farewell to their quarters and the historic city and left for "home, sweet home." Soon after leaving, Lieutenant Wright of the Governor's Guards, who was on the train, telegraphed his company at Columbia to prepare a reception for the Gordons on their arrival in the Capital City. The Richard Volanteers, who always know how to do the nice thing at the proper time, had already made preparations for entertaining the company as their guests, and thus were the Governor's Guards cut out of what they expected to do. Upon the arrival Capt. Newnam and a number of the Volunteers were at the train to welcome the Gordons for their short stay in the city. Headed by a drum corps the company marched up to main street from the Union depot, and up main street to the armory of the Volunteers. There a bountiful repast was in waiting prepared by caterer Heitsch, with plenty of nourishment of a liquid nature to wash it down and good cigars to cool off on. Col. Marshall in a neat speech welcomed the company, and in fitting terms Capt. Jordan responded, after which full justice was done to the "spread," but without any manifest decrease of the supply. Gen. Richbourg, Col. Marshall, Gen. Metts, Capt. Newnam and Jones, and a number of other prominent gentlemen, together with a full turnout of the Volunteers, were uniting in their efforts to make the short stay of the Gordons a pleasant one.

With a sincere regret to leave such kind hospitality, the Gordons, accompanied by Captain Newnam and others, took up the march for the C. C. & C. depot, which was reached just in time for the north-bound train. We cannot leave the account of the time spent in the capital without saying that the efforts of the military were most heartily appreciated, and that the Gordons hope to have a time in which to show more fully their appreciation. Speech-making and songs were the order of the day between Columbia and Winnsboro, in which all joined with a hearty good will. Arriving at home the company was marched to their armory and dismissed. Every one seemed to have enjoyed himself, and will remember very pleasantly the trip to the "City by the Sea."

RECOVER YOUR YOUTH.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay county, Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not draw myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50 cents at McMaster, Brice & Ketchin's Drug Store.

ALWAYS IN THE LEAD.

READ MY PRICES ON SUGAR.
